This is a list, presented alphabetically by author within year of publication, of nearly 1,100 journal articles, bulletins, book chapters, and doctoral dissertations that use data from the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Nationwide Food Surveys (Continuing Survey of Food Intakes by Individuals, Diet and Health Knowledge Survey, Nationwide Food Consumption Survey, and Household Food Consumption Survey) or discuss the methodology or history of USDA food surveys.

Excluded from this bibliography are the series of reports of Nationwide Food Surveys results published by USDA, as well as the data sets containing survey microdata. For information on reports and data sets see our website at <http://www.barc.usda.gov/bhnrc/foodsurvey/home.htm>.

This may not be an exhaustive list; it includes only those materials of which we are aware. If you know of additional items for inclusion in this list, we would appreciate a copy Please send information to Cecilia Wilkinson Enns at the address listed on the front or e-mail to: cenns@rbhnrc.usda.gov.

Articles mentioned in this bibliography should be ordered from your library or directly from the author. Copies are not available from the Food Surveys Research Group.
